

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law should be strengthened, NOT WEAKENED! I do not want to received more telephone marketing calls – even if I have already done business with the callers. Such calls are a violations of my privacy. I strongly urge you to resist attempts by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken this law. Please: Think of the consumers and citizens who pay your salary – NOT big business.